Note:

Western Dressage Classes will go first so kids can start preparing their horses for Western Showmanship. If we have kids that show in Hunters and Western, and are doing English and Western Dressage, they can choose to do their Western Dressage Test after their English Dressage (to allow for tack and attire change) or do their Western Dressage first and then English Dressage (but they will have to change attires twice). If we do not have any kids in Hunters (showing in Dressage), that are also registered in Western, we can start Western Showmanship in Freedom Hall during English Dressage.
